Dear Runnymede Friends:

We, the Windermere amalgamation team, want to express our gratitude for an open, honest conversation with your team yesterday afternoon. Your willingness to engage in these dialogues and your expressions of compassion for our circumstances and encouragement of our future prospects have been heartening.

Notes of our conversation yesterday will be before us as we continue to prepare our recommended path for our congregational meeting on March 5th. One thing we would like to know is whether, after your board meeting next Wednesday, we may expect to hear further as to your intention to proceed.

Acknowledging that no commitments have been made thus far, might there be a chance, before March 5th, you'd decide to withdraw from further conversation or revise what you see as favourable conditions to proceed?

Your fellow travelers on the Lenten road to Easter,

Cec Mutton
